25X1 he simply would not answer the correspondence unless he received further word and, in such event, he would answer along the lines that he had investigated the matter thoroughly and found no evidence to support the charges [redacted] and, in fact, his investigation had led him to believe that the contrary was true.

5. Legislative Counsel, accompanied by [redacted] appeared in open session to respond to questions from a Subcommittee of House Post Office and Civil Services Committee conducting hearings on H. R. 5007. We were able to respond without difficulty to the questions put and the Subcommittee generally seems favorable to the bill. See Memorandum for the Record.

25X1 6. The Director met with Congressman Emilio Q. Daddario (D., Conn.) in the Director's office. Present were: [redacted] and Lawrence R. Houston. See Memorandum for the Record.
